GRAND JURY HOLDS CHIEF OF POLICE

Deposed Head of Hopewell Force Named in Three Indictments

REPORTS 8 FELONIES

Magistrate Pulliam is Charged With Offering Bribes—More Sensations Expected.

Prince George Courthouse, Va., August 14—Indictments charging former Chief W. D. Henderson, of the Hopewell police force, with malfeasance and misfeasance in office, selling liquor and beer without a license, and conducting a gambling house, were reported by the special grand jury in the Circuit Court of Prince George county late yesterday afternoon. No report was made on the information in the hands of the prosecution regarding Henderson's connection with the bribery and graft revelations, which brought about the removal of himself and subordinates from their official positions by Judge Jesse F. West.

In addition to the Henderson presentment, there were eight indictments for felonies and fifteen for misdemeanors, making twenty-six in all, returned by the grand jury in connection with the investigation of lawlessness at Hopewell. Four of the felony cases were reported on Monday afternoon, but the formal indictments were not presented in court until today.

The indictments for felonies were: Two against William St. Paul Pulliam, a justice of the peace of Bland district, Prince George ounty, charged with offering bribes to officers.

Two against Antonio H. Becessi cabaret proprietor, for offering bribe to officers.

One against former Policeman Samuel Saffer, for accepting a bribe from a merchant at Hopewell for "protection."

One against former Policeman H. W. Pollard, for accepting a bribe from a poolroom proprietor.

After the indictments had been returned, Judge West ordered a capias issue for the arrest of Magistrate Pulliam, who formerly presided over the Police Court at Hopewell, and is connected with several of the leading families of Prince George County He is the only man held for a felony who had not been under surveillance for the past week.

Over the protest of Richard T. Wilson, of Petersburg, of counsel for several of the defendants, Judge West set the trial of four of the men charged with the more serious offenses, for successive days, beginning Tuesday August 24.

Eleven of the misdemeanor indictments charge the defendants with the operation of gambling devices, principally slot machines. Four others are against keepers of road houses halfway between Petersburg and Hopewell, charging each with selling liquor without a license and conducting disorderly resorts. The indictments reported against former Chief Henderson are for misdemeanors.

IN RUSSIAN TRAP

German Amies Said to be in Peril —Muscovites Cut Through Their Line

London, Aug. 14—Several German army groups in the Russian war theater have fallen into the trap of Grand Duke Nicholas, and are in the gravest danger, according to the Daily Telegraph's Petrograd correspondent.

"At the moment," says the correspondent, "one of the most interesting points on the Russian front is between the Dvina and Niemen rivers where the Russians, by the capture of the village of Toviny, have cut through the German line, thus separating the German armies operating around Poniewesch and Vilkomir. The latter army is in a dangerous state, and executing a frantic retreat in an effort to extricate itself.

"The German army operaing in the vicinity of Poniewesch also is in a dangerous position, with its right flank exposed to a Russian attack, which could only have the most serious results."

Budapest, Aug. 14—All signs indicate that the Austro-German armies will not follow up their advantage any further than the second line of Russian defenses after the fall of the Russian fortresses, but will reorganize themselves behind Warsaw and await further developments, there strengthening and rebuilding the defenses behind them.

This theory is not only borne out by the fact that a further advance would be suicidal, owing to the marshes, but also by the statement of Gen Marwitz, commander of the Tenth German army corps, who said: "If the Russians repeat the strategy of 1812 by devastating and burning everything behind them they can do it without compelling us to repeat the strategy of Napoleon. The tactics of the Russians to retreat when in dangerous positions will not persuade us to follow them into dangerous positions."

KAISER CAPTURES RUSSIAN TOWNS

Czar Admits Loss of Sokolow, Lukow Siedlce, East of Warsaw

KOVNO HOLDING OUT

In Spite of Losses, Invaders are Declared Checked and Beaten in Battles Near Riga.

London Aug. 14—Field Marshal von Hindenburg upon whom the most difficult tasks are imposed, has personally taken command of the German army attacking Kovno, and according to the German official report has made further progress in the fighting against the Russians in that Region. The selection of Germany's national hero for the duty of capturing the fortress of Kovno, which stands between the Germans and Vilna and the Warsaw-Petrograd railway, is an indication of the importance which the German General Staff attaches to this operation.

The news that the civilians has commenced to evacuate Kovno, as well as Vilna, led to the belief in many quarters that the Russians either had decided to give them up or had no hope of holding these points. Now, however, they are fighting hard to retain both cities, and in the latest official report from Petrograd it is claimed that the Russians have repulsed the German attacks, except at one point where a desperate artillery engagement is in progress.

Further north, between Poniewesch and Dvinsk, where General von Buelow a week ago was advancing rapidly toward the railway, the Germans apparently have suffered a setback, for the Russians now speak of pressing them, and declare they have reoccupied the town of Toviny, which is considerably west of the point to which the Germans had penetrated.

South of Riga also the Germans are said to be doing little more than holding their own, so that the talked-of advance toward Petrograd seems to be developing very slowly.

On the other hand the Germans continue to drive in the Russians to the northeast and east of Warsaw and with the capture of Siedlce are within a short distance of the Bug river, one of the main supports of the Brest-Litovsk line, which it was believed the Russians originally intended to hold, but which the German offensive to the northeast may prevent. Field Marshal von Mackensen, who commands the Germans in the southeast, between the Viepriz and the Bug, again is reported to have been held up by a Russian counter-attack, and it is declared in military circles that if he not farther south than he was a week ago he certainly is not farther north.

The military critics disagree as to the probable line on which Grand Duke Ncholas will elect to make his stand, but a majority of them consider it hardly likely that he will try to hold the Bhes-Litovsk front.

SERVIA STANDS IN ALLIES' WAY

Refusal to Yield Terms Asked May Keep Bulgaria Neutral

BREAKING ALLIANCE.

Old Matters of Dispute in Danger of Renewal and New Difficulties are Looming up

London, Aug. 14—There are strong indications that Servia will give a flat refusal to the demands announced by the Bulgarian Premier, Vassil Radoslavoff, three weeks ago, and that the hopes of the Entente Allies of bringing Bulgaria into the alliance will come to nought in the opinion of some diplomats here. Servia's formal reply has not yet been given, but those best posted in diplomatic quarters say that Bulgaria's demands far exceed anything that Servia could possibly yield.

The outcome is being watched with the keenest interest by the chancelleries throughout Europe, as Bulgaria is the chief obstacle to unite action by the Balkan States in joining the Entente Alies and thus throwing the Balkan barrier between the Central Powers and Turkey.

Bulgaria contends that by a treaty with Servia the latter ceded to Bulgaria about 7000 square kilometeres of Macedonia, which Bulgaria was compelled by the Great Powers to relinquish during her enfeebled condition after the second Balkan war.

Bulgaria now insists that the original treaty be carried out, and that unless she secures the return of Macedonia she will refuse to join the other Balkan States in assisting the allies.

The present issue has renewed the smoldering feuds among the Balkans and much bitterness is said to have developed n the course of the negotiations, all pointing to Servia's refusal to yield Macedonia, and to Bulgaria withholding her support from the Entente Powers. Officials of both sides say, however, that the negotiations have not yet been abandoned and that much depends upon the attitude of the Servian Parliament which is to meet next Monday, although personally they see little prospect of accord.

Rome, Aug. 14—It was learned on good authority that representatives of Great Britain, France, Italy and Russia are exerting further pressure on Servia in the hope of inducing her to make the desired territoral concessions to Bulgaria. Servia has been reminded of the support which she has received since the beginning of her difficulties with Austria last year. Assurances have been given to Servia that the allies will assist her at the time of peace negotiations provided she now yields to their desire.

The Bulgarian Minister to Italy, D. Rizow, discussing in the Tribuna the negotiations between the Balkan States and the Quadruple Entente, characterizes as unjust statements that Bulgaria considers herself indispensable to the allies and in bargaining on that basis.

Bulgaria the Minister asserts, has not changed her program. She was deceived in signing the treaty of Bucharest of 1913, under the terms of which she ceded to Roumania nearly 3000 square miles of territory. What Bulgaria now wishes, he continued, was reparation based upon the principle of nationality, for which the Quadruple Entente is contending.

SMITH EXECUTED

Bath Tub Murderer Pays Penalty of his Crimes

London, Aug. 14—George Joseph Smith convicted of the murder of his wife, Beatrice Constance Annie Mundy, in the famous "brides in bath" case, was hanged yesterday morning in the jail yard at Maidstone.

Although accused of killing three of his wives by drowning them in a bathtub to obtain their insurance, Smith was convicted only of the murder of one.

Smith was convicted on July 1, after a sensational trial, which aroused wide interest not only in the British Isles, but also in America. An appeal was taken by the prisoner court.

Mrs. Beatrice Mundy Smith was found dead in the bathtub in her home on July 13, 1912. Afterward the prisoner is charged with marrying four other women, two of whom died in baths. They were Alice Burnham, who was found dead in a bathtub in Blackpool on December 12, 1913, and Margaret Elizabeth Lofty, who met her death in a bath at her home in London on December 18, 1914.

During the trial it was brought out that Smith posed under different names while carrying on his Bluebeard operations. The prisoner maintained great coolness throughout his trial, denying his guilt.

It was afterward reported that Smith had confessed shortly before going to his death.

During the procession to the scaffold the condemned man broke down temporarily, but quickly recovered possession of himself. He firmly stood erect while the black cap and noose were being fitted and when the trap was sprung death was instantaneous.

CARRANZA'S AIM IS REVEALED

Would Recover From United States Territory Taken in 1846

UPRISING IS FEARED

Citizens of Brownsville Apprehensive of Attack by Mexican Garrison if Marines Land.

Brownsville, Tex., Aug. 14—Carranza modestly plans to reconquer from the United States all that territory lost by Mexico in 1847, if a written statement given to officials by a Mexican made prisoner in a border raid may be believed.

Manuel Rincones, who made this statement to Sheriff Vann, of Cameron county, and Captain Anderson, of the Twelfth infantry, says that about half the gang of fifty bandits who attacked Norias last Sunday came from Mexico.

"The attack on Norias" he stated, "was for the purpose of getting tools with which to remove a rail and wreck a train. The object in heading for the Rio Grande was to secure re-enforcements. At Nopal the chief took a paper from his pocket and read that the object of the expedition was to reclaim the land taken from Meixco by the United States. It was ordered in the name of Carranza, and the officer stated that it emanated from him."

Citizens of Brownsville are apprehensive of an attack by the Mexican garrison at Matamoras and fear that a general uprising will take place in this section if United States marines land in Vera Cruz.

Governor Ferguson stated at Rockport today that the border situation had improved to such an extent that he would not call out the state troops. His decision followed a conference with State officials last night.

FOUR OF FIVE SONS KILLED

Story of A German Mother's Great Sacrifice

A story illustrative of the fortitude of German mothers was printed recently in the Rhein und Ruhr Zeiung of Driesburg Germany. The story has to do with a middle-aged woman four of whose sons had been killed and a fifth badly wounded. The story, as told, is located in the office of the German information bureau at Driesburg, where daily the casualty lists for soldiers from that part of Germany are posted.

"Daily," says the writer of the article, "fathers, mothers, sisters, and sweethearts come and silently scan the lists for information as to the fate of loved ones. Before the eyes dance rows of black letters, forming brief sentences, each the fate of a human being. And as silently as the searchers for information come they go again. It is always the same silent train of heroically composed sorrow, of brave self-control in their immeasurable suffering.

"Occasionally the same faces do reappear—for example, that of an old woman with smoothly parted hair. I addressed her, for I recognized her as a former serving woman.

"Is your son at the froht, too, Mrs. Reinhard? That is your name, is it not?"

"She smiled and nodded."

"Five, sir, she answered simply—five of them.

"And all at the front?"

"Yes, five—that is, now there are only four. One of them, Albert, has fallen. For four weeks I heard nothing from him. But now it is written here —fallen in France. and she pressed her fingers on the list on one of the countless names.

"Are the others also in France" I asked in order to say something.

"No, only Ernst, Oswald and Franz are in Russia, and my youngest, Erwin is in the Carpathians"

ARRIVAL OF WHALEBACK

Curious Craft Brings 2,300 Tons of Ore to Alexandria Fertilizer And Chemical Company.

The whaleback barge Providence, carrying 2,300 tons of ore, reached Alexandria yesterday afternoon from Portland, Maine. The Providence was towed around by the ocean tugboat Gwalia, belonging to the New England Coal and Fuel Company. The ore had been brought to Portland in cars from Canada.

The Providence is the first vessel of that class that has visited Alexandria. It is the shape of a banana, built entirely of iron, and has a cabin aft and a "bridge" forward. When it appeared off the city it suggested to many a picture of a German submarine and attracted much attention.

GERMANY'S PROMISE.

The Kaiser is still fixing dates for momentous events. Like the Millerites, however, who predicted the end of the world in the early thirties, he is merely changing his dates. The German army were to eat their dinner in Paris September 15, 1914. The Teutons now promise the world to end the war in October.

The allies, too, seem to have a changable calendar. The Russian cry of "On to Berlin!" is not heard at present. The Baltimore American of today says:

"When the leaves begin to turn and the air becomes chill and the frost is gemming the pumpkins, peace, sweet peace, the gift of the Kaiser to the world, will be heralded. So says a dispatch from Amsterdam that professes to set forth a recent order of the day issued to the Teutonic armies in Flanders. The order is said to declare that the work of the Germans in the east is finished and they are ready to begin in the west. It winds up with the words, 'peace is certain in October.' Such fine calculation in the presence of so much of miscalculation by the Teuton allies is certainly refreshing. But there is no power of divination among them or anyone else as to the time that the divinity that shapes the ends of nations will take to bring about peace and when this shall be acclaimed.

"The world would welcome peace, the neutral world would experience perculiar relief. But the world does not believe that the German order of the day represents prescience in the matter of when the war shall come to a close. As to the drive in the west, if the Allies have not prepared for it they may be driven indeed and the way may be opened for a German peace in October. But the business of being a prophet in this war is not one to command respect The naming of October as the date when the Allies will sue for peace is of no more value than to mention the same date for a total conquest by the Allies. The war has not yet advanced to the point at which safe predictions can be made as to the outcome."

AMERICAN FLAG VANISHES

Several months ago at a time when the "yellow peril" makes periodical returns an apprehensive American was talking with a Japanese official. The former referred to relations between the United States and Japan and incidenally suggested that Nippon might have to fight for commercial supremacy in the Pacific. The subject of the Mikado smiled and assured his companion no such thing was likely, as Japan already enjoyed ninety per cent of the trade of the ocean and had no idea of attempting to capture the other tenth by an expensive war uncertain in its result. The Japanese moreover said that, under present conditions, it was impossible for the United States to compete with Japan, as labor conditions in this country made it impossible.

It seems that the small share of the Pacific trade enjoyed by America has passed from her, and at this time the island kingdom, in a commercial sense, rules the Pacific. While we make no criticism of the law which has brought these conditions about, the fact that the United States has no part in the trade of the Pacific is unfortunate.

The Pacific Mail Steamship Company in pursuance of its plan, announced some time ago, of disposing of its fleet and other property, has sold five of its steamers to the Atlantic Transport Company, of West Virginia. The steamers disposed of are the Manchuria, Mongolia, Korea Siberia and China, some of which were built in Newport News, Va.,

Some months ago the Pacific Mail Steamship Company indicated that it would withdraw its steamers from the transpacific service, and probably dispose of them because of the new seamen's law passed by the last session of Congress, the terms of which it is claimed, made it impossible for the Pacific Mail to compete with the Japanese lines. Many of the members of the crews, chiefly in the fire rooms, consist of cheap coolie labor, and, under the new law, the Pacific Mail would have to replace them with men speaking the same language as the officers of the ship. This, it was stated, was one of the most onerous clauses of the new law, but there were others which contributed to the decision of the steamship company to dispose of its property.

GREAT WAR DRAIN.

All the warring nations in Europe are straining their crdeit to the utmost in their effort to tear each other to pieces. They are borrowing wherever they can borrow and paying as far as possible for vast outlay with paper notes. Meantime their gold is pouring into the United States by trainloads. How much longer can they stand the strain?

While all this is going on Von Buelow says Germany will only listen to terms by which that country can obtain a proud peace. If he is voicing the sentiments of the nation, the war is liable to go on.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Actual work on installing machinery for making 2,000,000 rifles for the allies began yesterday at the new Eddystone plant of the Remington Arms Company, Philadelphia.

It is understood that all of the European governments directly interested in Mexico had been approached informally concerning the pan-American peace plan and had gave their approval, reserving only the right to press any legitimate claims they might have against Mexico when a permanent government is established.

Two men were killed and six injured, one probably fatally, late yesterday by an explosion at the plant of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, near Turtle Creek, Pa. The explosion occurred when the men attempted to place shells, which it is alleged are being made for use in the European war, into an annealing furnace.

A squad of special deputies, armed with rifles, last night guarded the county jail at Upper Marlboro, Md., where a negro, against whom threats of lynching had been made, is imprisoned. The negro, Charles Davis, is officially charged with horse theft, but an unofficial accusation of cruelty to animals yesterday aroused the community.

Mukhtar Pasha, Turkish Ambassador at Berlin, has been recalled at the kaiser's request because he reported to Constantinople that Germany and Austria were in the last stages of exhaustion and that the first serious German repulse would bring destruction. He recommended the Porte to employ discretion, pointing out that if Germany lost she would use Turkey as a scapegoat.

Damage estimated at $10,000,000 was caused by a terrific hurricane that swept over the northeastern and northern coast of Jamaica Thursday night and early yesterday. Great banana plantations were completely destroyed. Sugar plantations suffered the same fate. A gale is still blowing, but its violence is decreasing. So far as known there was no loss of life.

A running fight between 500 strikers and sympathizers on one side and 3 nonunion drivers and a score of policemen on the other, which terminated in a riot in front of the St. Louis Transfer Company's stable last night, was the initial act of violence in the strike of 1,500 transfer drivers and chauffeurs which began yesterday. The teamsters struck for higher wages and shorter hours.

Considerable re-enforcements appear to have reached the Russians in the most northerly theater, where armies of Gen. Von Hindenburg are operating. For several days the Germans have been retreating at all principal points. During this time Berlin has been authorized to observe a discret silence on the situation in this region, but there is ample evidence to show that for the time being the Teutons are overmatched.

Secretary Daniels is putting finishing touches to his decision on recommendations of the court-martial growing out of "gouging" scandals in Annapolis. It is reported that the verdict of the court-martial calls for dismissal of the midshipmen About twenty-one members of the midshipmen's battalion were involved in the scandal, and of these the Annapolis court of inquiry, which preceded the court-martial, recommended the dismissal of seven.

The first moves in the German plan to launch a great drive in the west and "end the war by October," are being made against two vital sections of the Anglo-French front in Belgium and around Verdun. The French communique reports a strong infantry attack by the Germans in the region of Neiuport, at which point strong re-enforcements have been reported arriving from Germany. The attack broke down under the allies' fire.

Newton McGrath, a section hand on the Wabash Railroad, who lives in Buffalo, a village near Springfield, Ill., has received more in one mail than he would have earned in 26,670 years at his present occupation. McGrath, holding his tamper and shovel, tore open a letter from a New York law firm advising him that his share of the $50,000,000 Mercer estate, in which he is an heir on his mother's side, is about $10,000,000. He read the letter several times, struck it into the back pocket of his overalls, spat upon his hands and resumed tamping.

GERMAN CRUISER DESTROYED

Russian Vessels Sustain no Serious Injury in Naval Fight

Petrograd, Aug. 14—According to the latest unoffcial accounts, the Russian Baltic fleet inflicted heavy losses on the German battleship squadron near Oesel Island Thursday.

It is stated that a large German cruiser was destroyed and several other warships damaged. Despite the heavy firing of the German ships the Russian vessels sustained no loss or serious injury. Russian seaplanes again rendered invaluable service in supporting the fleet.

It is surmised that the enemy's purpose was to reconnoiter the waters of the northern Baltic and, if possible, bottle up the Russian fleet in the Gulf of Finland and the Gulf of Bothnia.

As long as the Russian warships are able to penetrate to the south it will be impossible for the German to provision Von Buelow by sea or to send transports for the Libau and Windau operations. The hostile fleet therefore, must be regarded as a necessary adjunct to the land operations between the Dvina and the Niemen.

Oesil Island is at the mouth of, and commands the entrance to, the Gulf of Riga in the Baltic.

THE JINX CONVINCED HIM

Disbeliever in Friday the Thirteenth Hoodo is Convinced

Frederick, Md., Aug.. 14—"There aint no such thing as a Friday, the thirteenth, Jinx,' said E. G. Lithicum of Jamesville, to his wife at breakfast yesterday morning. His better half persisted that there is, and the argument was getting warm when a loud cackling drew Lithicum to his henhouse.

He found a weasel causing a commotion among the fowls. Hurrying back to the house for a shotgun he ran into the clothesline at the height of his throat and chocked himself breathless.. The gun kicked and broke his left wrist with the first shot, which missed the weasel. He threw it to his right shoulder and took another hurried shot. The gun lacerated his right thumb. The weasel escaped. "You win," he told his wife.

AN ALEXANDRIA INTERVIEW.

Mrs. Davis Tells Her Experience.

The following brief account of an interview with an Alexandria woman three years ago, and its sequel, will be read with keen interest by every citizen.

Mrs. G. W. Davis, 107 Prince St., Alexandria, gave the following account of her experience with Doan's Kdney Pills in March, 1912. She said: "Doctors treated me for a long while and pronounced my case a severe one, in fact, they said I had diabetes. Often I felt so listless and nervous that I almost gave up hope. I endured tortures from the complaint. I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills and they brought me relief after everything else had proven of no value. They strengthened me and removed the trouble from the kidney secretions."

On April 9, 1915, Mrs. Davis added: "I still take Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally, whenever my kidneys don't act as they should and I always get instant relief."

CARDINAL'S DENIAL

Has Not Called a Meeting of Neutral Cardinals to Discuss Plans for Peace

New York, August 14—Cardinal Gibbons, in a statement over his signature last night, gave an emphatic denial to London dispatches which stated that he and Cardinal O'Connell, of Boston, had called a meeting of neutral cardinals and bishops to be held in Switzerland for the purpose of discussing peace plans among the European belligerents.

In his statement Cardinal Gibbons, who is at Southampton, L. I., said:

"The dispatch published in the morning newspapers, in which my name is mentioned in connection with a projected conference of prelates to be held in Switzerland, is without foundation."

According to London dispatches, the two cardinals had invited Roman Catholics authorities in neutral countries to a conference which it was asserted, while not officially inspired by the Vatican, had received an unofficial recognition. Leading prelates in New York, while declining to comment on the report, stated that they seriously doubted if Cardinals Gibbons and O'Connell had planned any such conference.

BOUNDED TO HER DEATH.

Baltimore, Aug. 14.—Hurled through a third-floor window of her home by a sudden rebound of the springs of the bed, on which she was playing, Adella Machis, the four-year-old daughter of Mrs. Ella Machis, 859 Holins street, was so severely injured yesterday morning that she died almost instantly. The base of the child's skull had been fractured.

The bed had been placed near the window and the child was playing on the bed. Mrs. Machis was seated in a rocking chair close to the bedside, when suddenly the child uttered a piercing scream, and Mrs. Machis looked up to see the little one clinging to the window sill. Before the mother could reach the side of the child, the grip relaxed, and the little body fell to the pavement below, a distance of more than 30 feet. The child's body struck a fence in falling and then lay motionless. Mrs. Machis was restrained with great difficulty by a visitor from leaping from the window after the child. The frantic mother ran down the yard, picked up the body of the unconscious child and carried it back into the house. A physician was hurriedly notified and upon his arrival pronounced the child dead.

WHO BACKED HUERTA?

Former President and Followers Had Abundance of Money.

General Gregory disclosed yesterday that the Department of Justice is conducting under his personal supervision an important investigation to determine the source of the money used by Huerta in launching his intended revoluntionary movement into Mexico which was halted by the Federal authorities when they arrested the former dictator several weeks ago.

The Attorney General said the investigation had been in progress nearly three weeks, but that the evidence accumulated thus far does not justifiy a definite announcement at this time.

It was learned, however, that the investigation is being made by the New York secret service bureau of the Department of Justice, and that the clews in possession of the government point to certain financial interests in New York.

The Attorney General said nothing to indicate the nationality of the financial backers of Huerta nor could his statement be construed as confirming charges filed with the department that the real financiers of the Huerta movement were German officials in this country who wished to raise up difficulties between Mexico and the United States to distract this government in the event that trouble should come with Germany.

At the time of the arrest of Huerta and his co-operators by Federal agents, they had large sums of cash in their possession, and it was said that stores in sufficient quantities to outfit a military expedition of formidable proporions had been collected along the Rio Grande. The extent of the financial resources of the Huerta movement was not revealed at that time.

ATLANTIC CITY SENSATION

Young Physician and Woman Arrested While Burying Body of Infant

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 14— Dr. A. J. Downs, a young physician, and Miss A. Wagner, both of Philadelphia, were arrested here yesterday morning, as they were burying the body of a child in the sand, off the end of the Kentucky avenue beach. They are lodged in jail awaiting a hearing.

Channels, a lifeguard, noticed the two under the boardwalk, shortly after he went on duty. He watched them for about 15 minutes from a place of concealment under a pavilion. Dr. Downs was dressed in a bathing suit, but the woman was well gowned in street attire.

They cautiously edged their way to the soft sand, just beyond the boardwalk line, the guard says, and lay down in the sand as if they were resting. The woman, it is alleged pulled a bundle, wrapped in newspaper from beneath her coat and the two began digging. They soon made a hole large enough to receive the package and dropped it in. Just as they were heaping the sand over the body Channels placed them under arrest.

The lifeguard dug down into the sand and secured the bundle. Both Dr Downs and Miss Wagner claimed there was nothing in it, but old clothes. The guard called Weakley, a policeman who, upon opening the package, found the body of a child.

ACCUSED SPY IS A GERMAN.

Suspect Held at Tallahassee Admits it, But Denies Charges.

Tallahassee, Aug. 14.—August Orbolph, held here for arraignment on a charge of having made drawings of military reservations and light houses along the coast, claims German nationality, according to jail officers. He denied, they said, reports that he was of Austrian birth and had received remittances from relatives in Austria.

Orbolph was arrested by Federal officers as he was boarding a train for the east. He said he was traveling for pleasure and had no regular ocupation, and denied, the officers said, having made any drawings. HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work.

I began taking Cardui, the womar's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

JOINT RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to section 46, Article IV. of the Constitution.

Resolved by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia, be and the same is hereby, proposed and referred to the General Assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the House of Delegates for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia, section forty-six of article four, which is in the following words:

Sec. 46. No session of the General Assembly, after the first under this Constitution, shall continue longer than sixty days; but with the concurrence of three-fifths of the members elected to each house, the session may be extended for a period not exceeding thirty days. Except for the first session held under this Constitution, members shall be allowed a salary for not exceeding sixty days at any regular session, and for not exceeding thirty days at any extra session. Neither house shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn to another place nor for more than three days. JOINT RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 50 of Article IV of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment, and certifying the same to the next General Assembly.

1. Resolved by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia, be and the same is hereby, proposed and referred to the General Assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the House of Delegates for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section fifty of article four of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia, section fifty, article four, which is in the following words:

Sec. 50. No law shall be enacted except by bill. A bill may originate in either house, to be approved or rejected by the other, or may be amended by either, with the concurrence of the other.

No bill shall become a law unless prior to its passage it has been—

(a) Referred to a committee of each house, considered by such committee in session, and reported;

(b) Printed by the house in which it originated, prior to its passage therein;

(c) Read at length on three different calendar days in each house; and unless,

(d) A yea and nay vote has been taken in each house upon its final passage, the names of the members voting for and against entered on the journal, and a majority of those voting, which shall include at least two-fifths of the members elected to each house, recorded in the affirmative.

And only in the manner required in sub-division (d) of this section shall an amendment to a bill by one house be concurred in by the other, or a conference report be adopted by either house, or either house discharge a committee from the consideration of a bill and consider the same as if reported; provided, that the printing and reading, or either, required in sub-division (b and c) of this section, may be dispensed with in a bill to codify the laws of the State, and in any case of emergency by a vote of four-fifths of the members voting in each house taken by the yeas and nays, the names of the members voting for and against, entered on the journal; provided further, that no bill which creates or established a new office, or which creates, continues or revives a debt or charge or makes, continues or revives any appropriation of public or trust money or property, or releases, or discharges, or commutes any claim or demand of the State, or which imposes, continues or revives a tax, shall be passed except by the affirmative vote of the majority of all the members elected to each house, the vote to be by the yeas and nays, and the names of the members voting for and against, entered on the journal. Every law imposing, continuing or reviving a tax shall specifically state such tax, and no law shall be construed as so stating such tax, which requires a reference to any other law or any other tax. The presiding officer of each house shall, in the presence of the house over which he presides, sign every bill which has been passed by both houses and duly enrolled. Immediately before this is done, all other business being suspended, the title of the bill shall be publicly read. The fact of the signing shall be entered on the journal.
